work on delivering the extensive capital budgets projects, and to get on with the job of providing the essential local government services to our community.

Councillors & staff invested the significant effort to consider the budget implications for our community, being ever mindful of the rising cost of living. Our 24/25 Budget has been complied with a conservative mindset, whilst trying to continue to provide the essential services and community facilities that make living in our Shire wonderful.

In early August we held information sessions for the cemetery upgrade project and the 24/25 Budget. It was an excellent opportunity to receive feedback from the community on a key project, and our future plans. If you would like further information on either of the sessions, please refer to the Shire of Katanning Facebook page, or contact the Shire administration centre. Katanning continues to be the regional hub of the great southern, and this sentiment seems evident in the recent funding announcements from State and Federal government agencies. With Katanning being named the location of a National Disability Insurance Scheme pilot program, and also for several programs being delivered by the Early Years Partnership & Dept of Communities, our community should see better delivery and access to critical services, making it easier to live, work and thrive in our region.
