Street art and large-scale murals

From the town's founding father to long-neck turtles and Arabic scriptures – discover a series of colourful artworks painted on walls and electric transformer boxes in and around town.

Katanning's Sheep Saleyards

Visit the Southern Hemisphere's largest undercover sheep saleyards on a Tuesday afternoon or Wednesday morning for a unique insight into the region's agricultural industry. Don't miss: Enjoying a meal with local farmers at the saleyards canteen on Tuesday evenings.

Blooming Wildflowers

Katanning is home to a number of wildflower species that cannot be found anywhere else in the world, including vibrant yellow Acacias and delicate orchids. Spot these beautiful delicacies in full bloom during spring.

Under the Milky Way

Watch clear blue skies turn into a kaleidoscope of colour at sunset, then transform into a rich tapestry of twinkling stars at night, from various vantage points in and around town.

Katanning's Harmony Festival

Feast on the best of street food delights, including (arguably) the best satay in the state, while connecting with a multitude of cultures through music, dance and live performance, during this family friendly annual festival held in March.

All Ages Playground

Built with big and little kids in mind, this iconic – and free – playground features sky scraping slides, giant seesaws and heaps of thrilling rides. Around the corner you'll also find a skate park, BMX track and miniature railway.

The Horsepower Highway

Travel down the Horsepower Highway, a 75km self-drive trail that will lead you past vintage and quirky tractors, through stunning farmlands and on to the iconic Stirling Range National Park.

Heritage-listed sites

Did you know there are more than 100 heritage-listed buildings and sites in Katanning? From churches to homesteads – these places offer insight into a town that claims to be home to many of WA's firsts.

Global cuisine

One of the best ways to experience Katanning's melting pot of culture is on the palate. Head out to one of the town's restaurants and cafes and taste authentic Malay, South African, Vietnamese, Karen and other cuisines.

The Stirling Range and Porongurup National Parks

Find rugged cliff peaks surrounded by soft, fluffy clouds, to towering Eucalypt trees that lead to giant granite mounds, just a hop, skip and jump away from town.
